Report on the student attributes facilitated by Institute:

Institute facilitates common attributes among overall students through various learning tactics. For a faster all round personality development of students, there is a need of striking a balance between syllabus curriculum, books and co-curricular activities. Co-curricular activities give the students an opportunity to build up particular skills and reveal their non-academic abilities. There are various types of extracurricular activities conducted in the college, which offer students, an opportunity to gain essential life skills.

- Recent developments in the subject
- Ability to identify and analyze problems and issues and to formulate, evaluate and apply evidence based solutions and arguments
- Familiarity with advanced techniques and skills
- Originality and creativity in evaluating and applying evidence-based solutions.
- An understanding of the need for a high level of ethical, social, cultural, environmental and wider professional conduct
- The ability to deal with complex issues and make sound judgments
- Developing a capacity to think independently, exercise personal judgment and take initiatives for self as well as social development

- Developing students' knowledge, skills and qualities relevant to chosen career paths and to those paths which may open up in the future, enabling each to succeed in a rapidly changing workplace and in becoming entrepreneurs.
- Nurturing a reflective awareness of ethical dimensions, and responsibilities to others, in work and everyday life.
