

All the distinguished guests have graced the occasion.

Induction Meet started by honorable Principal with inviting Sri. Amarnath, IT Minister, SP from Anakapalli Muralikrishna and many more. Followed by lighting a lamp and prayer by student group.

Sri. Amarnath said that, Indians are hard working people. 25% Software employees in America are from Indians. He has promised to help entrepreneurs who are ready to establish startup Companies.

Chairman Sri M Srinivas Rao garu introduced galaxy of guests and said that he did not aim to earn money but to produce expertise students and well paid jobs. He emphasized that students should be given academic freedom which leads to success end up being yellow collar jobs that means whatever field they lie. He said that rural people are not show good yet communication skills which are essential for existence of life. He exhorts students to follow Vivekananda be awake, arise, and stop not till your goal achieved.

While Sri. Umashankar, MLA Narsipatnam speaking rural areas like Narsipatnam giving good education for the students for which he was thankful to M Srinivas Rao garu. He also requested to establish a Industry in this area.

K V Muralikrishna S.P. from Anakapalli made it clear that ragging is not tolerated in uniform. It is a cognizable offence. He gave importance for discipline which is paramount importance for any success. He also said that learning is continuous process and exhorts students to make use of technology for better life. Students should be ambitious and having low ambition is crime.

While speaking NSTL Scientist P V S Ganesh garu, made us known that Indians became self reliant in production. We are no way inferior to western Companies. We made a mark in landing moon where other countries fail.

While Srinivas Pindi, Executiver Director, Phenom People speaking artificial intelligence play dominant role in human life.

JNTU Professor Dr. K Babulu speaking students should know the academic regulations of University and prepare well to secure more marks.

Welcome note is given by Principal, Dr. C P V N J Mohan Rao. He presented brief introduction about College. He made an announcement regarding getting of NAAC A+ Grade and expecting status of Autonomous in future.

In this connection, prizes were distributed to winners and runners by Chief guest.

He felicitated all guests and honoured them with Memento.

To entertain students, entertainment programs are conducted.

With all concerted efforts, Induction Meet became tremendous success.

