About the Program

Due to heavy demand and high salaries in the IT sector, most of the students are opting the IT as a career. In recent times, more new IT courses are introduced by AICTE, which further reduced the demand for Mechanical Engineering seats and thus leading to scarcity of mechanical engineers in the market. Although the initial salaries for mechanical engineers are less, there are many jobs that pay more or are comparable with IT jobs with more stability. So, with the students having the latest technologies and skills, there is a huge demand for Mechanical engineers.
